

Summary of Taylor Regional Hospital

Financial Assistance Policy

Taylor Regional Hospital recognizes that some patients are unable to pay their hospital bills due to financial considerations including financial hardship due to medical misfortune. TRH will assist those who cannot pay for all or part of their care by extending Financial Assistance to qualifying patients.

A patient may qualify for Financial Assistance if he or she meets certain criteria based on annual income and the patient is not eligible for other private or public health coverage or a patient who has a third-party source of payment but has a high deductible, out of network or has a coinsurance that is a financial hardship for the patient. Patients qualifying for Financial Assistance will not be charged more than amounts generally billed to Medicare for emergency or other medically necessary care.

In order to qualify for Financial Assistance based on income, the following criteria must be met –(1) annual income is less than or equal to 125% of the Federal Poverty guidelines, emergency and other medically necessary care is provided at no charge; annual income exceeds 125% and is below 200%, care is provided at discounted rates. Patients qualifying for Financial Assistance will not be charged more than the amounts generally billed to Medicare and all other private health insurers for emergency or other medically necessary care.

All requests for Financial Assistance must be submitted using the Hospital's Financial Assistance application. The application can be mailed to Taylor Regional Hospital, P.O. Box 1297, Hawkinsville, Georgia 31036 or hand delivered to the Business Office at Taylor Regional Hospital at 222 Perry Highway, Hawkinsville, Georgia.
